The longest and the most auspicious festival of Hinduism called Dashain is also celebrated at Rainbow Children-Nepal. Some of the children went to their family and relatives. Dashain is celebrated for 15 days. In the first two days people go to temples and in 5th day people go to buy the mountain goat. Next day, the goat is sacrificed and everyone eats goat's meat. It is believed that the mountain goat eats herbal plants and the goat's meat will be as herbal remedy. As a whole, Dashain is the combination of fine things. The symbol of victory of gods over demons, in the main day elders and Rainbow's staff offered blessings to younger by marking their forehead with Tika and holy Prasad of the Goddess. During that time we had some volunteers and they also enjoyed the Dashain festival. Hence, Dashain was celebrated with much joy and sharing happiness around.

Tihar is our second biggest festival. This festival is about the relationship between brother and sister. In Tihar, sisters put seven different colors of tika on brother's forehead and brother gives present to sister. Tihar is the festival of lights. All the houses are filled with color lights. People also goes to relative's houses to play deusi-bhailo. The main theme of playing bhailo is giving blessings to relatives. Our children also played bhailo. Some of them sang and danced. They are so much happy to celebrate Tihar festival. Thank you so much for your support to our children home directly or indirectly.

International Women's Day, celebrated globally on 8 March, is dedicated to reflecting on the achievements of ordinary women who have made an extraordinary impact in their countries and communities, and to celebrate the contributions of women all around the world. The theme for this year's International Women's Day is "Think equal, build smart, innovate for change".

On that day our elder girls also joined program at the local market of Pokhara awaring about importance of women education. We are so proud that we don't have any discrimination between man and women.

Sometimes Rainbow Children Home also supports to the needy people who got effected by natural disaster. This time we went to place called Kusum Khola (Tarai) to support flood victims. We were there for 3 times and recently we went to Bara-Parsa(Tarai) to support Tornado victims. We took truck of colthes and stationary. The places were fully destroyed by flood and Tornado. We helped as we could. People were so much happy to get supported by us. Thank you so much for all your help and support to our orphanage without which it would not have been possible.

As you know we have small space for library and tv room. So we have recently started the new Tv room and a bit better library than before. We also have added new rooms for the girls. Now all the kids have a better space in their room. As the children grow older, they should have basic knowledge of computer. It is also good for them to have a basic knowledge. So as the requirement we have recently started computer section for the children. Sagar and other older boys teaches computer to other children. We are planning to add music class.
